AGAWAM, MASS. 01001: THURSDAY, JULY 11, 1968

By Subscription $1.50 Per Year — 5c Per Copy

'Treasure Isle' Winners

PALM BEACH SHORES, Fla. —Lorraine and Ralph Silver of 203 Regency Park Drive, Agawam, listen as John Bartholomew Tucker (JBT), host of "Treasure Isle," tells them they just won over $1,700 worth of prizes on the popular ABC-TV weekday series.

The Silver's won the race to Treasure Island with the right answer to the Puzzle Island riddle as they edged a couple from Florida.

The Massachusetts couple won a Caribbean cruise, refrigerator-freezer, Mexican food, carpeting, electric broom and polisher, formal wear, beach wear and a television set.

"Treasure Isle" has meant nearly $350,000 worth of prizes to contestants and home viewers of the program. The Silver's appeared on Monday's (June 24) program.

Moore GOP Candidate For State Representative

Leslie J. Moore, Sr., 33 Federal Ave., Agawam, a Republican candidate wishes to announce that he will ask the people of the newly formed 9th Hampden District to elect him to be their representative to the Massachusetts Legislature in the forthcoming election.

The "lawmakers" by their redistricting efforts, have created a new political marriage by joining the town of Agawam with the 8th Precinct of West Springfield; to form the 9th Hampden District.

The legislative requirements of the newly formed district will become more complex in the days ahead. If the two large towns are to be served well, the politics of today, will call for a forceful approach requiring solid requirements in many fields. It exists as a dangerous trap for the novice, or the inexperienced to fall into.

JESLIE J. MOORE, SR.

The needs of the area cry out for strong Republican representation. Otherwise the people in this part of the state will find their wishes submerged by the Democratic interests elsewhere.

Leslie Moore offers the ideal qualifications of a modern day representative to the General Court.

He has been a resident of Agawam for 41 years, while married to the former Julia A. Pitter, also of Agawam. He owned and successfully led the growth of (Please Turn To Page 4)

UNICO Barbecue Menu Announced

Barbecue Chairman, Chester J. Nicora, Jr., announced today that all is ready for the annual chicken barbecue to be held by the Agawam Chapter of UNICO on Sunday, July 21, at St. John's Field. There will be continuous servings from 1-5 p. m.

Chairman Nicora noted this year's menu will be ½ barbecued chicken, fresh tossed salad, home made potato salad, watermelon, rolls, coffee and soda. Albert (Corn King) Christopher guaranteed an ample supply of fresh picked corn will be delivered Sunday morning.

President Gus Bartolucci, Chairman Chet Nicora and all the members of the Agawam chapter of UNICO invite you and your family to Sunday's barbecue. Proceeds from this picnic will go to the welfare and scholarship fund of the Agawam Chapter of UNICO. Tickets may be obtained at the picnic or from any member of UNICO.

Community Grange Program Tuesday

Community Grange will hold a meeting on July 16th at the Grange Home on North West St., Feeding Hills. A picnic at 6:30 p.m. on the Grange lawn to which all Grange members and their friends are invited, will precede the business meeting. A fireplace for cooking will be available and coffee will be served to all who wish it.

The business meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock.

In accordance with President Johnson's proclamation to observe the week of July 21st as National Farm Safety Week, the program will center upon that theme. A film will be shown entitled "Tommy looks at tires" followed by a discussion of street and highway accident data.

DONALD THORNTON

At a recent June meeting, what was perhaps a historical occasion, Donald Thornton, the youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Thornton, of Agawam, was unanimously endorsed by a conference of approximately 50 members of the Agawam Methodist Church to start a course of study leading to full ordination as a United Methodist minister.

Donald, a 1964 graduate of Agawam High School, resides with his parents at 108 Kensington St., Feeding Hills, will complete approximately one year of college leading to a B.S. Degree and then will enter a Theological Seminary leading to full ordination and connection in the United Methodist Church ministry.

V.F.W. Post 1632 and Auxiliary Bulletin

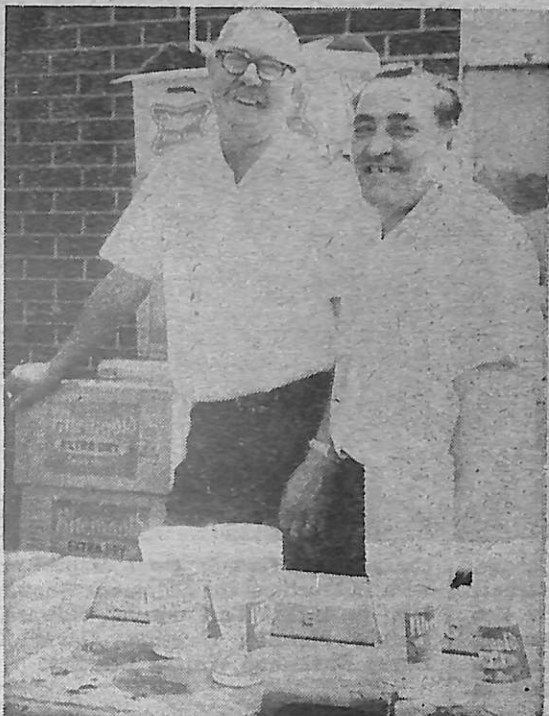

By ANNA D. BISSENETTE

A beautiful day (June 30) for the Chicken Bar-B-Que found the committee hard at work. Chairman James Stellato and Co-chairman Katy Dickinson wish to thank the following friends and members who worked in one way or another: Bib Bissonnette and Ed Harpin serving refreshments; P. C. Dick and Micky Adelman and Rocky Stellato at the fire pits; (chicken and the fixings were out of this world). Tom Dickinson, Andy Cimma, Ellie Appleman, Jan Rudderforth, President Emily Dias, P. P. Venetta Snyder, Al Christopher and Anna D. Bissonnette for everything they helped with including the making of salads and donating of cupcakes and cakes. The younger children received balloons, whistles and played on the swings in the back of the post home.

Adult prizes were awarded to: 1st. L. Bazzier; 2nd. Anita Mar-

V.A. HOSPITAL NEWS
A VOLUNTEER ASSIGNMENT IN STATION DISASTER PLAN — Regularly scheduled volunteers on duty during a Station Disaster Training Exercise are to leave their work area and report to the personnel pool in the Staff Room Bldg. No. 1. They will be oriented on the emergency and participate in the activity where needed. At the close of the exercise they will return to assignment area or leave for home. In the event of a NATURAL disaster, volunteers may be called at home for assistance after a decision has been made by the Hospital Director that additional help is needed. In such case, the volunteers will re-shall. All the rest were of the same value: Joe Donnelly, Pitu Harpin, Jim Brown, Paul Ford, Terry Cimma, Roy Ferrall, Beula Hocker, Don Curran, Louie Dugan, Ed Straszko, Andy Cimma, and V. Kozaczka.

Children's prizes were: Dean Appleman Billy Rudderforth, Betty Harmetta, Martha Dias, Mary Adelman, Debby Snyder, Thomas and Richard Dias, Jimmy and Richard Snyder, Kathy Adelman Howie and Paul Ford, Jr. and D. Kozacka.

Bigger and better crowds should attend as you are all missing a grand time.

Just part of the committee's pictures could be taken and if we missed you I'm sorry. . . Pictured above: Tom Dickinson on the right and Chairman Jim Stellato.

We were very happy to see many members of Post No. 6714 of West Springfield and also the Roland Reeds.

On July 1, at the V.F.W. Post meeting, P. C. Adelman was presented with an "All State Commander's Hat" and a $25 check for having a 100% year. . . In other words we were A OKE in all departments. The gifts were presented by State Senior Vice-Commander Clarence Raymond. At this same meeting Adelman was appointed Building Committee Chairman for 1968-69.

Irish Retell Tales Of The 'Wee People'

Tralee, Irish Republic

On a green and grassy hillock near Ross Castle, a 14th-century battlement in Ireland's County Kerry, there is a favorite gathering spot, according to legend, for the world of the shee—that is, of the fairies.

It isn't likely, of course, that visitors to Ireland actually ever will see any of these "wee people," but listening to the Irish tell and retell tales of these fairy folk who inherit what they call the Middle Kingdom — fables of ghosts that scurry over roads and boreens, witches that turn into hares—can become, in retrospect, one of the fondest memories of an Irish trip.

These "unchany folk" are as much a part of the land there, north as well as south, as the colorful speech, as the beauty of the misty fields and rolling hills of green, the silver glint of the lakes of Killarney and the River Shannon.

Most truly Irish of all these "little people," perhaps, are the leprechauns, small, snub-nosed, roguish elves that are the traditional shoemakers — and troublemakers — of the pixie life. Leprechauns are sly, slippery, and cantankerous, standing only two feet tall, wrinkled in their age, dressed in a red or green jacket with two rows of seven buttons, red breeches buckled at the knees, and always wearing a cocked hat on the point of which they can spin like a top.

Whatever else one doubts in today's materialistic world, no one in Ireland ever questions the leprechauns for, as they say, "They stand to reason."

Moore's Express, Inc., for 40 years. It began as a one man operation and when sold recently, the business served the entire State.

Two years ago, making a first run for the office now sought, in what had been a widely scattered district, he lost by a scant 57 votes.

At that time it was felt that the defeat of a Republican candidate would not seriously affect the political needs of that district. Subsequent events have shown that the responsibilities to the district have not been fulfilled by the present office holder.

Following the election defeat, the desire to be with and serve people, drew him back to the business world, and he became the manager for the Eastern Van Lines in West Springfield.

Business success means the ability to sell a service, a product or an idea. It means working with people, understanding their needs, desires, motives and methods. Ideal training for the representative who must match wits, get ideas across, make the right compromises, get the right things done. Readily seen is the affinity between business and politics.

For Leslie Moore, life was not all business. He is a Navy veteran of World War II, a member of the American Legion for 22 years, Past Commander of Wilson-Thompson Post 185, Agawam, a member of the Agawam Civil Defense Council, Chairman of the Evacuation Committee, member of Selective Service Board #80, serving Agawam and West Springfield for six years and in addition fraternal civic associations.

In the weeks ahead, prior to the primary election day, Tuesday, Sept. 17th, Leslie Moore will unfurl his program of modern day representation for the people in the 9th Hampden District, based upon a good common sense approach to what is needed and what is not, and what people can afford.

EPIDEMIC

Every year about this time there is an epidemic of pool fever. The symptoms are very easy to detect. You suddenly start thinking how nice it would be to have a beautiful swimming pool in your own back yard. The Catalina Swimming Pool Co. has the cure for pool fever—a complete selection of round or square swimming pools installed in or above the ground. Call before the epidemic spreads and the prices go up. Catalina is still selling at pre-season discount prices. Don't wait—Call now and swim by July 4. Call 734-4624.

Senior Center Buzzing With Activities

The Agawam Senior Center at 770 Main St., opened just one month ago is fast becoming the hub of activities for the community's senior citizens. Daily attendance has been excellent according to members of the Council on Aging.

On opening day over 300 were present. Attendance was 70 at the recent film showing on Medicare, with the same number appearing for the weekly Friday afternoon card party.

Bowling, pool and billiards, landscape painting and ceramic groups are now being formed.

The Council has also organized a transportation pool for those who are unable to drive or in need of transportation to and from the Center.

The Center is well equipped with a carpeted lounge area with early American furnishings, also a colored television. Draperies adorn each window and new and modern kitchen is handy for snacks and refreshments.

The Center is open from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., Monday through Friday, with Mrs. Edith Larsen, Council member, heading the House Committee.

All Agawam's senior citizens are invited and welcome. There is no charge connected with the programs other than bus trips. Further information can be obtained by calling the Center at 732-8451.

Moose Kiddie Kaper

On July 14 Sunday, there will be free hotdogs and hamburgs to all MOOSE members and their guests and children at the Sacred Heart Church Pavilion on Springfield St., Feeding Hills. . . (right behind the church). This will begin at 1 p. m. and promises to be a wonderful time for all. Joe Pepper will be chef for the day and he said "Included in the free food will be all the condiments, sweet corn and watermelon." Bill McGavin who has charge of the Field Events announced there will be prizes for the children, softball and horseshoes for adults. Many of the Chicopee and Westfield Lodge members are expected to be there to help make Agawam Lodge's first 'Kiddie Kaper' for the children a success. Also on the committee are: Gov.

Call of the Moose

This letter was signed — Mr. and Mrs. Lou Robert, who you remember I wrote left for their vacation right in this paper. THIS is how the MOOSE help each OTHER AS BROTHERS. . .

While on our vacation, my wife and I were on our way from Miami Beach to Fort Myers, Fla., and we were involved in a head on collision 22 miles from Fort Lauderdale. We were taken by ambulance to the Broward General Hospital in Fort Lauderdale. After treatment for broken ribs, I was released but my wife Karen was seriously hurt. I knew I had to look for assistance from someone because she had to remain for a week. I called the Loyal Order of Moose Lodge No. 983 and they immediately sent a member by the name of Otto Wieben of 2620 S. W. 9th Court. He drove me back to my car to get my clothes and valuables and then got me a room in a motel near the hospital so I could visit Karen. This was on Sunday.

During the week we received cards and visits from the Lodges in Florida. We wish to thank Moose Lodge No. 983 for all their care. The doctor advised me to let my wife remain in the hospital unless she could fly home. Thanks to the kindness of Agawam Moose Lodge No. 1935, who purchased our tickets we flew home on Saturday, June 29th. All this although I had been a Moose Member for only three (3) weeks.

We also wish to thank The William Mitchells, the Samuel Smiths, and the Robert Grouxs for all the help they've given us on our return.

Brother Moose Jim Riley confined to his home at 873 Springfield St., Agawam, after a bad scare.

No Pectin!

Here's a no-pectin jam recipe which our family has used for years. The jam is delicious but a bit on the runny side.

No-pectin strawberry jam
2 quarts strawberries
Water to cover
6 cups sugar

Wash and hull berries. Scald and leave in boiling water two minutes. Drain berries and add four cups sugar. Boil two minutes after entire mixture comes to a boil. Remove from heat and after bubbling stops add two more cups sugar and boil five minutes. Pour into shallow pan one-half-inch thick. Let stand overnight. Pour cold into jars and cover with paraffin.

For raspberry jam, use the same method, but do not let the berries stand in the hot water two minutes.

SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By BILL CHIBA

Can THREE ASSASSINS kill a CIVIL RIGHT? The rights of 200 million law-abiding Americans to own and use firearms legitimately are gravely threatened because of 3 assassins, all of them possibly Communist tools. Two are alleged to have had extensive Communist contacts.

The triggermen who horribly and deplorably shot down President John F. Kennedy, Dr. Martin Luther King, and U. S. Senator Robert F. Kennedy, it now appears struck a staggering blow to the American tradition of firearms ownership that has stood since the first settlers landed gun in hand.

Some Congressmen and anti-gun extremists now demand that all private ownership of firearms be stamped out as an evil. If the Administration concurs in this, it will show a morale-crushing lack of faith in the integrity and good intentions of the American people.

Murder Is Up

In New York City, which has long had registration of handguns, homicides recently increased "ONLY" 14%. The New York Times reported that most were committed with knives, not guns. Our point here is that, guns or no guns, New York City has more murders than ever.

Philadelphia, with its "model" gun law that actually decreased penalties for firearms violations, officially reported 19 homicides this May compared with 14 the previous May. There, too, the rate keeps going up.

Washington, D.C., already enforces a measure of handgun registration. Yet the D. C. Grand Jury reported in May that a thriving black market in illegal guns exists in the Nation's capital. New York City is reputed to have a brisk black market in guns with Mafia backing.

Some anti-gun spokesmen have been quoted as saying they want to "dry up" the supply of firearms in America. A move was

Major And Minor Action In Little League East

In the last two weeks of Little League East's scheduled action the rain-soaked diamond and cloudy and wet skies prevented much of the action. The most important games of the period found the Bombers winning two, 14-9 over Packers, and 7-5 over Panthers, while the Panthers, despite two big wins 15-5 over Senators and 14-2 over Packers, were unable to hold the round lead and the Bombers moved into first made 50 years ago to "dry up" the country in another respect. It ushered in organized crime on an unprecedented scale. It's gangsterism is still with us. A return to Prohibition—this time on guns—would seem to be the perfect gift for our criminal element.

Gun Registration

Those who want gun registration fail to cite one case where it ever PREVENTED a crime. It is at most useful in tracing a gun AFTERWARD. (The average killer today, if convicted at all, goes free in 5 to 15 years.)

Gun registration would cost an estimated one to two billion dollars a year (based on 100,000,000 to 200,000,000 guns at $10 each) out of someone's pocket. Yet those favoring it cannot guarantee that it will save even a single life.

Some say Gun Registration will slow down Crime, but will it? All cars are registered. Yet 436,561 by actual count (FBI Report) were stolen in 1966 mostly in defiance of a 1948 Federal Law (up to 5 years and $5,000 for interstate car theft) and despite state registration.

Who Sides With The Criminals?

Amazingly, some of the very people who are most against guns, are not actually against them but have this feeling out of excessive, misplaced kindness. If you doubt this, test them. QUESTION 1: Should murderers be executed? QUESTION 2: Should a life sentence mean a lifetime in jail? See how many answer "NO."

Over Half

Why are some good, sincere people against guns? Many have swallowed false propaganda such as "guns are meant only to kill." Civilian guns are not for killing at all, except game taken legally. Many, specially designed for Trap, Skeet or Target Sports, are not suited even for hunting. Others, kept for home protection, never are fired. Their presence is enough. Surveys indicate that over half of all U. S. families out of a 200 million population own guns without ever misusing them.

place forcing a play off game between these two teams when a dry-diamond is available. It has tentatively been scheduled for Wednesday night, weather permitting.

The 14 All-Stars will be selected from a group of 20, 12 and a few 11 year old players. The 20 boys MUST attend practice sessions and ALL managers and coaches from ALL the Major Teams are requested — and expected — to participate in these practices.

The Senators and Packers were the winners in last week's Minor action. The Minor players will play their last games at night for the first time in order for them to get used to the evening schedule for next season and to give those parents who work Sat-

Bowling Awards

Certificates were awarded by Principal Charles Kistner to all bowlers in the Wednesday after school league at the final Junior High Assembly on the last day of school. Agawam "A's" were presented to those bowlers not on winning teams who bowled a high string of over 100. Recipients were Clara Duval 113, Mike Doyle 102, Cliff Montebello 105, Gary Savaria 116, and Jim Burgamaster 107.

Trophies were awarded by Coach John Janzewski to the bowlers on the top two teams and to those who had high singles, high three, and high average. Second place team winners were John Rosati, 114, Lance Lamagdaleine 109, Craig Dore 91, and Gary Robinson 102. The first place winners Dave DeChristopher 109, Diana Cross 120, and Captain Robert Geoffrion who collected four trophies, one for first place team, second high single of 139, second high three of 409, and second high average of 100. Bruce Foster also received four trophies, one for first place team, and high single 152, high three of 422, and high average 104.

AIN'T NECESSARILY SO

A dab of paint or the addition of a little padding may be all that's needed to salvage a lure that is not producing fish.

Color and size are extremely important in influencing the decision of a fish to smash a certain plug, say the fishing authorities at Mercury outboards. But, the lure in your hand may appear entirely different when scanned by the critical eye of a roving largemouth. He may not be impressed by either its size or color.

Instead of disposing of an ineffective plug, try changing its apparent size by painting it a different shade.

Skin divers have noted that lures painted yellow appear much larger when viewed from beneath the surface. This aberration is apparently caused by reflection, plus the magnifying effect of water. The same model in a different light-absorbing color might appear nearly normal.

Yellow and white-and-red combinations have long been favorite topwater choices; their effectiveness probably derives from the reflective qualities of these colors, not the colors themselves.

But color is not the only way to achieve a false dimension. There are other ways to pad out the girth of a lure without actually adding bulk.

Ordinary flyrod bugs with stiff hackles attached so that they stick out at right angles can create the effect of a larger apparition. The same feathers placed on the tail give the appearance of a longer lure. Neither alteration affects the casting or fishing abilities to any degree, but both create an entirely different impression on fish.

So heed the hues and pad the plugs — a phoney line has been the downfall of many a lunger.

Who Are These Men Called Knights

Religion Outlines For Knights of Columbus Council As Directed By Bishop Charles E. Greco, Supreme Chaplain

By JAMES A. O'KEEFE
District Deputy

1—The II Vatican Council has left no doubt of the importance the Church attaches to her laity. This is brought out throughout the documents of the Council but particularly in the DECREE ON THE APOSTOLATE OF THE LAITY. For it is because the layman is baptized into the death and resurrection of Christ and made a member of the People of God, or the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church, that he becomes really involved and literally plunged into the mission of Christ and His Church. It is not merely because of the lack of priests, but because of his baptism and membership in the Mystical Body of Christ, that the layman is called to action, in the many areas in which he is best able to serve the needs of the Church. As in the natural body of Christ, so also in the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church, must each member make a contribution to the life, growth and development of the Church. "The member who fails to make his proper contribution to the development of the Church must be said to be useful neither to the Church nor to himself."

2—The Christian, to be an effective apostle, must present to all he meets the joy of the Christian good news, and he should, even inadvertently, be an attractive person and one who exudes self-assurance.

3—The Council does not leave the impression that piety alone will solve the problems of our time. Hence it states: "They should not cease to develop earnestly the qualities and talents bestowed on them in accord with these conditions in life, and they should make use of the gifts which they received from the Holy Spirit."

4—It is imperative that the Christian layman realize his talents and develop them in every way possible. Often humility has been used as a cloak for sloth. Some have said: "I do not have the ability or talent or drive or time to do such things. Get someone more qualified than I am." Actually, such a person might have to admit he is just too lazy to get into the fray and too afraid of criticism.

5—Since many of the problems which plague our times are complex and of magnitude, it stands to reason that solutions are difficult, and often failure attends our best efforts. Progress and confusion, pacifism and war, crime and culture all add to the perplexities of our days and add anxieties to the human person. But the Christian must not be counted by problems and failure. For unless the Christian, salt of the earth and light of the world, directs and enlightens the world to ultimate perfection, chaos will result.

STORROWTON THEATRE

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — Frank Sinatra, Jr., will make his debut in Western Massachusetts and Northern Connecticut at Storrowton Theatre the week of July 15-20, according to Michael Iannucci, Storrowton's managing director.

The popular singer will be featured in The Totie Fields Show at Storrowton Monday through Friday evenings at 8:30 and in two performances Saturday evening, 7 and 10 p. m. There will be no matinee performances, Iannucci said.

The son of a famous father, and the brother of an equally famous sister, Nancy, Frank, Jr., resembles his dad in many ways—height, weight, stage appearance, etc., — yet, he has a personality of his own.

Well aware of the magic of his name, Frank, Jr., has traveled far in his brief, six-year career. He has appeared at leading clubs throughout this country, toured Europe and the South Pacific, and has been seen on many of this nation's leading television shows. Sinatra, Jr., launched his singing career unexpectedly in 1962 when he surprised the Elliott Brothers at Disneyland and asked if he could sing with them on stage. Within months he became the youngest person ever to receive individual billing on the Las Vegas "Strip."

Sinatra, Jr. has local connections since one of his arrangers is Bob Isernio of Hampden, Mass.; his personal manager is Tino Brazie of Pittsfield, Mass.; and Al Almeida of Springfield plays tenor sax in his orchestra. Chuck Andrus of Holyoke, Mass., has been playing bass for him since he left Woody Herman's Orchestra.

The Storrowton box office will be open Sunday from 1 to 5 p. m.

Get a good night's sleep before starting out on a long trip and allow plenty of time to reach your destination. Keep your eyes roving to avoid a fixed stare ahead; glance in the rear view mirror frequently and at the instrument panel—avoid highway hypnosis!

Westfield Savings Bank Savings Deposits Gain Three Million

WESTFIELD — Savings deposits at the Westfield Savings Bank showed a gain of $3,061,282 during the past 12 months to reach a record $48,445,011 on June 28, Arthur W. Knapp, president, told the quarterly meeting of the board of trustees in Storton Tavern Monday night. Henry F. Burrows, chairman of the board, president.

The trustees during their meeting voted dividends of 4½ per cent on regular savings accounts and 5 per cent on special notice, or 90-day accounts, payable on July 10.

Mr. Knapp said this dividend payment, which will total $1,075,000, plus the $1,030,000 paid to savers in January, brings the total dividend payout during the year to $2,105,000, an alltime high in the bank's history.

The dinner meeting at Storw-ton followed a tour by the bank's officers and the board of Westfield Savings Bank's new Agawam office at 655 Main St., in Agawam. Mr. Knapp reported that community acceptance of the new banking facility has been "excellent, and we anticipate that the new Agawam office will contribute significantly to the growth of Westfield Savings by bringing new home buying and thrift services to Agawam."

Commenting on the $3,061,282 increase in savings deposits during the past year, and the gain of $1,487,712 during the past six months alone, Mr. Knapp noted that "despite the high level of consumer spending, people continue to give attention to their thrift programs and the steady dividend earnings of mutual savings banks."

He told the meeting that total assets of the bank continue to grow, totaling $56,279,639 on June 28, a new record, reflecting a gain for the year of $3,741,458, and of $2,569,293 for the six month period.

Real estate loans on June 28 were also at a record high figure of $42,006,041, an increase of $3,953,149 for the year, "representing a significant contribution to residential and business expansion in the communities served by Westfield Savings Bank."

Mr. Knapp said he believes that savings activity and home mortgage demand will remain at a high level throughout the year.
